

1.0 HEALTH, SAFETY & ENVIRONMENT POLICY

1.1 Policy

“Insert Company Name Here” is committed to ensuring the health, safety and welfare of all their employees, contractors, customers, and visitors to the site. It is also committed to maintaining environmentally friendly operation practices and to comply with any relevant standards and guidelines. All levels of employees are to acquaint themselves fully with the contents of this policy statement to ensure compliance within their area of responsibility. “Insert Company Name Here” Occupational Health and Safety Program is the guide to safe operation for “Insert Company Name Here” This Occupational Health & Safety Program and applicable policies and procedures conform to the WorkSafe Saskatchewan Occupational Health and Safety Regulations, Workers Compensation Act of Saskatchewan, WorkSafe Saskatchewan OHS Guidelines and the Canadian Environmental Protection Act.

1.2 Responsibilities

The “Insert Company Name Here” intends to provide a safe workplace by:

- Developing a comprehensive occupational health, safety, environment and welfare program;
- Assigning responsibility to all levels of management for compliance with all aspects of this program;
- Continuously identifying hazards in the workplace and either eliminating them or reducing the risk associated with them;
- Providing appropriate training, instruction and education to all employees; and
- Enforcing this policy equally among employees, contractors, customers and visitors.

“Insert Company Name Here” Supervisors are responsible for:

- Providing a health and safety orientation to new workers;
- Providing ongoing training to workers;
- Taking part in safety inspections and incident investigations;
- Reporting any safety or health hazards; and
- Correcting unsafe acts and conditions.

All employees have a duty to maintain vigilance and foresight in identifying and correcting hazards to health, safety or the environment. When necessary, they are to contact their Supervisor to take the appropriate steps to eliminate or reduce mitigate hazards at work. “Insert Company Name Here”, the Employee Safety Representative and Management will be contacted where doubt or uncertainty may exist with respect to appropriate actions to be taken.

1.3 Commitment Statement

By placing my signature below, I personally endorse this policy and expect that all employees have the same high level of commitment that I do to the health, safety and welfare of our employees, contractors, customers, visitors, clients and the general public at large.

5.0 SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY

5.1 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to communicate “Insert Company Name Here” approach to addressing sexual harassment in the workplace and to establish a “zero tolerance” policy for such behavior.

5.2 Definitions

1. Sex discrimination is the act of treating an individual differently than others because of their sex, sexual orientation or gender identification. Sex discrimination includes any form of harassment, abuse of authority, social exclusion, or denial of services, promotion, work benefits or rights.
2. Sexual exploitation occurs when an individual in a position of trust and/or authority attempts to coerce someone else into performing sexual favours or other forms of humiliating, degrading or exploitative behaviour of a sexual nature, in exchange for assistance, money, employment, goods or services. This occurs without permission, consent or invitation.
3. Sexual abuse is sexual behaviour or a sexual act threatened or forced upon a person without their explicit permission, consent or invitation. Consent must be verbal: silence or passivity as a response to this behaviour does not equal consent. Sexual abuse is an act of violence that negatively affects a person’s mental, physical and psychological wellbeing for the rest of their life. It is a serious offence that is punishable under the Criminal Code of Canada. Sexual abuse includes all unwanted sexual touching, grabbing, kissing, fondling, rape, sodomy and stalking.
4. Sexual harassment is any unwanted physical or verbal sexual behaviour that makes a person feel embarrassed, offended, humiliated, intimidated or unsafe. It often involves someone from a position of power being hostile, rejecting or bullying a person they perceive as weaker than them and it should not be ignored.
5. Gender-based harassment is a type of bullying used to force masculine and feminine stereotypes on people who do not conform to traditional gender norms. Its purpose is to make the target feel unwelcome or ridiculed because of their sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression. Examples of gender-based harassment include social exclusion, sexist jokes, pranks, unwelcome and humiliating comments/slurs and unsolicited advice or advances.

12.0 VACATION LEAVE POLICY

12.1 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure “Insert Company Name Here” employees are granted their vacation leave annually as per the Saskatchewan Employment Standards Act.

12.2 Policy

1. Vacation leave may be taken at any time during the current fiscal year (January – December), provided that it does not conflict with scheduled “Insert Company Name Here” programming and/or event and that the time has been approved by owner.
2. Requests for vacation time off are to be submitted at least 3 weeks in advance.
3. “Insert Company Name Here” will allow the employee to take vacation within 12 months after the date on which the employee becomes entitled to it.
4. Employees are entitled to take vacation in one continuous period, unless he or she requests shorter periods of at least a week at a time. Employees must receive approval from the employer in advance for each vacation period.
5. “Insert Company Name Here” and employees will negotiate when annual vacation will be taken. If no agreement is reached, the employer can schedule the employee's vacation by giving the employee a written notice at least four weeks before the employee's vacation must begin. If the employee does not take a vacation, the employee must get vacation pay no later than 11 months following the date when the annual vacation was earned.
6. “Insert Company Name Here” can require all employees, or all employees in part of a workplace, to take their vacation at a time when the employer has closed all or part of the workplace. However, this applies only if those vacation periods are not less than one week in length. “Insert Company Name Here” can do this by providing the employees with a written notice at least four weeks before the vacation must begin.

12.3 Granting of Early Leave

1. The “Insert Company Name Here” recognizes that an employee may want or need some time off in the first year of employment.

13.0 OTHER LEAVES POLICY

13.1 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure all “Insert Company Name Here” employees are given the opportunity to qualify for sick, bereavement, pregnancy/maternity, parental, family responsibility and jury duty leave and the length of leave.

13.2 Sick Leave Policy

1. “Insert Company Name Here” will not discharge or discipline employees who have worked for them for more than 13 consecutive weeks because of absence due to the illness or injury of the employee:
 - a. if the absence does not exceed 12 days in a calendar year for an illness or injury that is not serious;
 - b. if the absence is due to serious illness or injury, and does not exceed 12 weeks in a period of 52 weeks; or
 - c. if the employee is injured and receiving benefits under The Workers' Compensation Act, and the absence does not exceed 26 weeks in a period of 52 weeks.
2. “Insert Company Name Here” may require a medical note to verify the absence. Employment standards do not require employers to pay employees who are away sick. However, “Insert Company Name Here” and employees may agree to paid sick leave.
3. If the employee's absence due to the illness or injury is the result of a public health emergency, the employee doesn't require 13 weeks of employment or needs to provide a medical note.
4. Vacation pay can be used as sick leave only by mutual agreement between an employer and employee. Vacation days used as sick leave should be clearly identified on the employee's pay stub.

13.3 Bereavement Leave

1. When a member of an employee's immediate family dies, an employee with more than 13 weeks of employment with an employer is entitled to take unpaid bereavement leave.
2. Bereavement leave can be up to five working days.
3. It must be taken within one week before the funeral to one week after the funeral.

13.4 Pregnancy/Maternity Leave

1. Pregnant employees can get 19 weeks of maternity leave.

14.0 RESIGNATION AND TERMINATION POLICY

14.1 Purpose

The purpose of the policy is to outline “Insert Company Name Here” procedures in regards to employee resignation or termination as per the Saskatchewan Employment Standards Act.

14.2 Notice Period

1. Employees will be provided with written notice when being laid off or terminated. Where no notice is provided, “Insert Company Name Here” must provide pay instead of notice equal to the amount of notice the employee is entitled to. The minimum amount of notice is based on how long an employee has been working.

Employee's Period of Employment*	Minimum Period of Working Notice
more than 13 consecutive weeks but one year or less	one week
more than one year but three years or less	two weeks
more than three years but five years or less	four weeks
more than five years but 10 years or less	six weeks
more than 10 years	eight weeks

2. If you are laid off for more than 14 consecutive days and return to work with “Insert Company Name Here”, your period of employment restarts at zero.
3. Notice is not required if:
 - a. the employee has not worked for the employer for at least 13 weeks;
 - b. the employee quits;
 - c. just cause for termination exists; or
 - d. the employer provides the employee with pay instead of notice.
4. When an employee is terminated, “Insert Company Name Here” will, within 14 days, pay:
 - a. all wages owing;
 - b. all vacation pay and public holiday pay owing; and
 - c. any pay instead of notice (if required).

21.0 COMPUTER USE AND EMAIL POLICY

21.1 Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to ensure “Insert Company Name Here” employees use company computers and emails for legitimate business purposes only.

21.3 Policy

1. The company’s communication system consisting of the internet, networks and e-mail systems are the property of “Insert Company Name Here” and are to be used for legitimate business purposes only. It is the responsibility of all employees to ensure these systems are used lawfully, professionally and ethically.
2. It is the belief of “Insert Company Name Here” that employee productivity can be greatly enhanced through the use of these tools, however, employees must understand that all communications done through the internet, network and email access provided to employees is owned by “Insert Company Name Here”.
3. “Insert Company Name Here” reserves the right to monitor all aspects of its communication and any messages sent, received, saved or deleted via the company’s communication system or information downloaded, uploaded, stored, transmitted or distributed using the company’s communication system may be reviewed by the company at any time.
4. All emails are considered an important means of communication and employees should use the same care and professionalism in drafting emails as they do with all other types of correspondence.
5. Confidential information should not be sent via email and any questions regarding the content of an email should be directed to your Supervisor.
6. For further detail on this policy see your Supervisor/Manager or visit the Human Resources Department.

One new informational piece has been added to the 2015 WHMIS supplier label which is called “Signal Words”. Signal words indicates the relative level of hazard i.e. “DANGER is used for most severe instances. WARNING is less severe.”

A hatched border around the supplier label is no longer required. A solid-lined border will now replace the hatched border around supplier labels.
